In view of furthering its inter-cultural mission statement, this year's Cambridge Assessment English Christmas Gala will bring together students, parents, teachers and a series of world-renown researchers to discuss the past, present, and future of cultural property rights in light of the recent events that have altogether changed heritage repatriation policy:

- The return of the only extant fragment in Italy from the A. Salinas Archaeology Museum (Palermo) to the Acropolis Museum (Athens), in January 2022,
- The reciprocal loan of a statue portraying Athena from the Acropolis Museum to the A. Salinas Archaeology Museum in February 2022, and
- the definitive renunciation of all claims on the Morgantina Treasure by the Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York) in March 2022
